This article J. Med. Imag. 5(1), 011016 (2018), doi: [10.1117/1.JMI.5.1.011016] was originally published online on 4 January 2018 with the following error. The Pearson correlation coefficients were not computed and reported in a consistent fashion, most notably in Table 10, where values labeled “ r^2 ” were instead the values of r without appropriate squaring. Figure 8 contained a similar inconsistency, though not all values were affected.

Original (erroneous) and corrected correlation coefficients from Table 10 are enlisted here with their corresponding measurements:

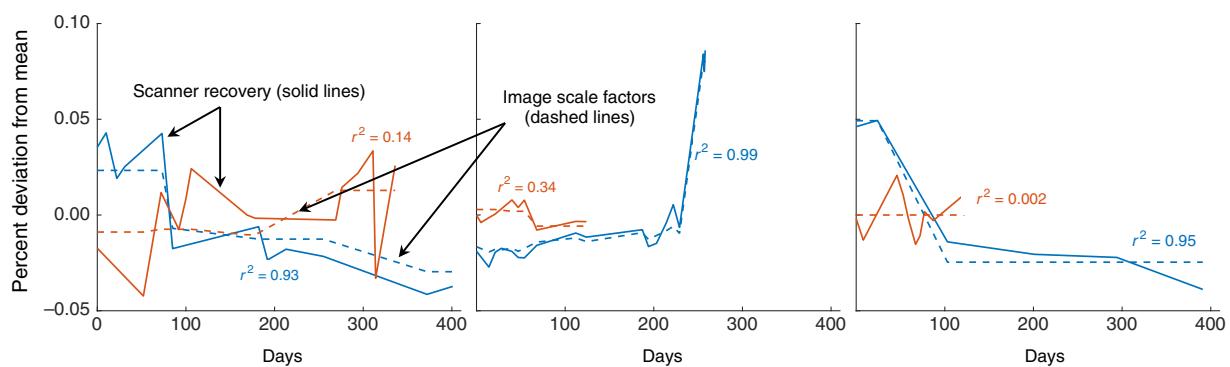

Original (erroneous)		Corrected
Measurements	Correlation coefficient	Measurements	Correlation coefficient r^2
